Diver Classifications

IGSA Sport Diver

An IGSA Sport diver is competing for their school in their correct age group or higher and can also trial for CIS. Additional dives may be required for some age groups.

They can only compete in one IGSA Sport age group and/or platform event.

They may dive in a higher age group for the IGSA Sport springboard competition or in the open platform, and trial as a CIS diver in their appropriate age. This is at the individual schools' discretion.

Each school may only nominate one diver for the Open Platform event (point scoring). CIS Platform trials will also be held within this event. CIS divers must compete within their appropriate age group only.

An IGSA Sport diver cannot compete in the team event.

Team Diver

A team diver may only compete in the team event.

No IGSA or CIS diver may compete in the team event.

A team consists of a minimum of three (3) divers up to a maximum of six (6) divers.

A team diver can only perform a maximum of two (2) dives in the team event, regardless of division.

CIS Diver

A CIS diver (CISD) is competing in the IGSA Sport CIS trials to be considered for selection in the IGSA Sport Representative Team for CIS, on springboard and/or platform and only if they are of a competitive standard appropriate for CIS selection. This will be at the discretion of the IGSA Sport Convener and Diving Committee.

A CIS Diver result is not included in the IGSA Sport point score nor will they receive medals.

A CIS Diver can only dive in the age group they turn this year for both springboard and/or platform and must complete the required CIS dives.

Division 1 – maximum twelve (12) CIS divers across all age groups for springboard and maximum nine (9) divers across all age groups for platform.

Division 2 – maximum three (3) CIS divers across all age groups for springboard and three (3) divers for platform.

Clashes

Students competing in both swimming and diving must complete their list of dives prior to the conclusion of their age group. Referees must be informed.
